7.2. Once the Deposit has been paid by the Tenant, the Landlord will transfer the Deposit to The DPS. The Landlord will aim to do this within 1 working day of funds clearing, and always within the 30 days required under the terms of the scheme.

7.3. At the end of the tenancy, howsoever it comes to an end, upon vacant possession of the Premises and return of the keys, the Deposit shall be returned to the Tenant less such sum as the Landlord may reasonably require:

7.4. No deductions shall be made from the Deposit unless, or until, the reason for the nature of the deductions along with their amounts have been notified to the Tenant. Any dispute arising from the proposed deductions will be subject to The DPS guidelines including use of the free and independent Alternative Dispute Resolution service where its use has been agreed by the Tenant and Landlord.

7.5. The Tenant shall not be entitled to withhold the payment of any instalment of Rent or any other monies payable under this agreement on the ground that the Landlord holds the Deposit or any part of it.

7.6. If the Deposit is insufficient the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord such additional sums as required to cover all costs, charges and expenses properly due within a period of 14 days from the end of the tenancy.

7.7. If either party is not contactable or otherwise not responsive at the end of the tenancy, the other party should notify the Deposit scheme administrator so that the Deposit may be treated in accordance with the terms of the scheme.

If the Tenant qualifies for a discount or an exemption from Council Tax it is the responsibility of the Tenant to apply for this.

8.43. To permit the Landlord, and any superior landlord, or the Landlord's employees/agents at all reasonable times after giving the Tenant at least 24 hours' notice (except in an emergency):

- for any purpose mentioned in this Agreement or connected with the Landlord's interest in the Premises;
- to enter and view the Premises with any prospective future Tenants or purchasers during the last 60 days of the tenancy or other period of notice.

The Tenant shall be liable for all reasonable losses resulting as a consequence of the Tenant's failure to allow access to the Premises.

Furniture

9.1. Where requested by the Landlord, the furniture and effects shall be as specified in an inventory signed by the Tenant.

9.2. The Tenant will:

- Clean or pay for the cleaning of all carpets, curtains and any other parts of the Premises or contents included in the letting which may have been soiled during the tenancy.

Obligations of the Landlord

The following clauses set out what can be expected from the Landlord during the tenancy.

The Landlord agrees:

Quiet Enjoyment

10.1. To allow the Tenant to quietly hold and enjoy the Premises during the tenancy without any unlawful interruption by the Landlord or any person rightfully claiming on behalf of the Landlord.

Consents

10.2. To confirm that all necessary consents have been obtained to enable the Landlord to enter this agreement (whether from superior landlords, lenders, mortgagees, insurers, or others).

Statutory Repairing Obligations

10.3. To comply with the obligations to repair the Premises as set out in sections 11 to 16 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 (as amended by the Housing Act 1988). These sections impose on the Landlord obligations to repair and keep in good order:

- the structure of the Premises and exterior (including drains, gutters and pipes);
- certain installations for the supply of water, electricity and gas;
- sanitary appliances including basins, sinks, baths and sanitary conveniences;
- space heating and water heating;

but not other fixtures, fittings, and appliances for making use of the supply of water and electricity. This obligation arises only after notice has been given to the Landlord by the Tenant regarding the defect or issue in question.

10.4. To comply with the obligation under section 9A of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 to keep the Premises fit for human habitation for the duration of the Term.

Insurance

10.5. To insure the Premises under a general building insurance policy (if the Premises is already covered by the freeholder buildings insurance policy then this will be sufficient). The Tenant will be responsible for insuring their own possessions under their own contents insurance policy.

Other Repairs

10.6. To keep in repair and proper working order all mechanical and electrical items belonging to the Landlord and forming part of the fixtures and fittings, unless the lack of repair is due to the negligence or misuse of the Tenant, his family, or visitors.

10.7. To provide assistance to the Tenants with keeping the Premises free from all pests or vermin.

10.8. The Landlord shall not be required to carry out any repair for which the Tenant is liable by virtue of this agreement or keep in repair anything that the Tenant is entitled to remove from the property.

Safety Regulations

10.9. To ensure that all the furniture and equipment provided by the Landlord complies with the Furniture and Furnishings (Fire) (Safety) Regulations 1988 (as amended in 1993).

10.10. To ensure that all gas appliances comply with the Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1998 and that a copy of the safety check record is given to the Tenant at the start of the tenancy.

10.11. To ensure that all electrical installations at the Premises are inspected and tested at regular intervals by a qualified person and that all relevant electrical safety standards (including those under the Electrical Safety Standards in the Private Rented Sector (England) Regulations 2020 where applicable) are met during the tenancy and that a copy of the most recent report is given to the Tenant before that Tenant occupies the Premises.

Interrupting or Ending this Agreement

The following clauses set out the ways in which this agreement may be brought to an end by either party.

Early termination by the Landlord

11.1. If and whenever during the Term:

- the Rent or any part of it is in arrears for 14 days after it has become due (whether legally demanded or not), or
- there is a breach by the Tenant of any part of this agreement, or
- the Tenant becomes bankrupt or insolvent or enters into a voluntary arrangement with its creditors; or
- any of the Grounds 2, 7 (in England only), 7A, 7B (in England only), 8, 10-15 and 17 set out in Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1988 apply the Landlord may re-enter upon the Premises or any part in the name of the whole resuming possession on the furniture and effects and immediately thereon the tenancy shall terminate, but without prejudice to the other rights and remedies of the Landlord. The Landlord's rights under this clause are subject to the restrictions of the Protection From Eviction Act 1977 and the Housing Act 1988 and the Landlord will not whilst the Tenant is residing in the Premises physically retake possession without first obtaining a Court Order.

Notice to end the tenancy at or after the end of the Initial Term

11.2. If either party wishes to end the tenancy on or after the final day of the Initial Term, they may give notice in writing to the other as follows:

- The Landlord must give notice of no less than two months, such notice to expire any time on or after the final day of the Initial Term. A notice served by the Landlord under section 21 of the Housing Act 1988 shall be sufficient notice under this clause.
- The Tenant must give notice of no less than one month, such notice to expire the day before a Rent Payment Day or on the final day of the Initial Term.

11.3. If neither party serves a valid notice to terminate the tenancy at the end of the Initial Term, the parties agree that at the end of the Initial Term the tenancy will continue as a contractual periodic tenancy on a monthly basis. The parties agree that clause 11.3 acts irregardless of whether multiple months rent was paid in advance or not.

Uninhabitability

11.4. If at any time the Premises are rendered uninhabitable by an event or events which are not the result of negligence or breach of contract by either party then, the choice being at the Landlord's sole discretion, either:

- the Rent will cease to be payable by the Tenant until the Premises are made habitable and the Landlord will be under no obligation to provide alternative accommodation; or
- the Rent will continue to be payable and the Landlord will be obligated to provide suitable alternative accommodation to the Tenant as chosen by the Landlord at their sole discretion.

11.5. If following an event described above, in the reasonable opinion of an appropriate expert the Premises cannot be made habitable within one month then either party may give one month's notice to terminate this agreement following which it will end and no further obligations under it will be performable by either party save that either party may pursue the other for breaches of this agreement which pre-date said termination.

Effect of Notices to terminate the tenancy

11.6. On the expiry of a notice to terminate the tenancy under clause 11.2 the tenancy shall end and no further obligations shall be performed under the tenancy save that either party may pursue the other for any breach of this agreement occurring before the expiry of the notice.

12.2. Any notice served upon the Tenant by the Landlord pursuant to this agreement or any statute or regulation must be served in writing and will be deemed sufficiently served if sent by registered post or first class post to or left at the Premises. Notices served by recorded delivery post, or prepaid first class post to the Premises, shall be deemed to have been properly served and received by the Tenant on the second day after posting (or if that day is not a working day on the next working day), or in the case of notices left at the Premises on the next working day after delivery.

12.3. The Landlord and the Tenant agree that notices pursuant to this agreement may be served on the other party by email. The email addresses for notice are:

Landlord: [Email Address]

Tenant: [Email Address]

12.4. Notice served by email shall be deemed sufficiently served if it is sent to the Tenant or the Landlord at the email addresses identified above in this agreement and no notification of failure to deliver that email is received.

12.5. The Landlord gives the Tenant notice under the Housing Act 1988 that possession may be recovered on the following grounds:

- The Landlord notified the Tenant that the Landlord previously occupied the Premises as the Landlord's only or principal home and the Landlord may rely on Ground 1 of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988 to recover possession of the Premises in circumstances where the Landlord requires the Premises as the Landlord's only or principal home.
- The Landlord notified the Tenant that the Premises are subject to a mortgage granted prior to the start of the tenancy for purposes of Ground 2 of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988 and has served notice in accordance with Ground 1 of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988.

Miscellaneous

13.1. If the Premises comprise part only of a building the letting shall include the use (in common with others) of access ways to and from the Premises inside the building.

13.2. Where two or more persons are named on the tenancy agreement, their obligations shall be joint and several. This means, for example, that any one or more of the individuals jointly forming the Tenant can at the Landlord's sole discretion be held responsible for the full Rent and other obligations under the agreement if the other individuals do not fulfil their obligations.

13.3. References to one gender include all genders; to the singular include the plural; and to the 'month' mean calendar month.

13.4. References to a working day mean a week day excluding Christmas Day, Good Friday and any day which, under the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971, is a bank holiday in England and Wales.

13.5. The Tenant is responsible for insuring their own belongings, furniture and furnishings in the Premises, and the Landlord will not accept liability for any loss or damage that may occur as a result of use within the Premises.

13.6. The Tenant and the Guarantor confirm their agreement with the Landlord's Privacy Policy which they made when completing their application forms.

13.7. Where the Landlord's own title to the Premises is leasehold and not freehold, the Landlord may themselves be a tenant under a superior lease. The Tenant agrees to perform and observe at all times during the Term the conditions and stipulations contained in the superior lease that were notified to the Tenant prior to the commencement of the tenancy.

13.8. The Landlord is responsible for ensuring the Premises comply with any applicable property licensing regulations for the duration of the tenancy. The Tenant agrees not to use the Premises in any manner which might lead to it becoming licensable under any part of the Housing Act 2004 without the Landlord's express written consent.

13.9. If any term of this agreement is, in whole or in part, held to be illegal or unenforceable to any extent under any enactment or rule of law, that term or part shall to that extent be deemed not to form part of this agreement and the enforceability of the remainder of this agreement shall not be affected.

13.10. The Landlord and the Tenant agree that this agreement shall be exclusively governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of England and Wales.

13.11. The operation of section 62 of the Law of Property Act 1925 is excluded from this agreement. The only rights granted to the Tenant are those expressly set out in this agreement, and the Tenant is not to be entitled to any other rights affecting any adjoining property of the Landlord.

The Guarantor

The Guarantor is the person or persons responsible for discharging the Tenant's obligations if the Tenant defaults whether the Landlord elects to pursue the Tenant or not.

"Joint and Several" means that the Guarantor will be liable with the Tenant to pay all Rent and any debt arising from any breach of the tenancy until all debt is paid in full.

14.1. In consideration of the Landlord agreeing at the request of the Guarantor to accept the Tenant as the Tenant of the Premises the Guarantor hereby covenants with the Landlord that the Tenant will pay the Rent and comply with all the Tenant's obligations in this Agreement (including any variations to increase the Rent whether by agreement between the Landlord and the Tenant or pursuant to a notice given by the Landlord under section 13 of the Housing Act 1988). If the Tenant fails to pay the Rent or to observe or perform any of the Tenant Covenants, the Guarantor shall pay or observe and perform them and will be liable for the reasonable losses incurred in respect to the breach or breaches.

14.2. As between the Landlord and the Guarantor the Guarantor is a principal debtor and not merely a surety.

14.3. This Guarantee is irrevocable and shall continue beyond the Guarantor's death or bankruptcy (falling as a liability on the estate) throughout the period that the Premises are occupied by the Tenant and is not limited to the Term of this agreement.

14.4. If the Tenant defaults during the initial Term or any extension, renewal or continuation of this agreement or the Tenant is declared bankrupt and the Tenant's Trustee in Bankruptcy elects to disclaim the agreement then on written demand the Guarantor hereby agrees to pay damages to the Landlord for all losses, claims, liabilities, costs and expenses arising out of or in connection with that default or disclaimer or incurred by the Landlord in connection with the default or disclaimer.

14.5. It is hereby agreed that the Guarantor's liability under this Clause will be joint and several with the Tenant which means that each will be responsible for complying with the Tenant's obligations under this agreement both individually and together. The Landlord may seek to enforce these obligations and claim damages against the Tenant, the Guarantor, or both of them under these clauses. These obligations will not be cleared or affected by any act, neglect, leniency, or giving of time by the Landlord endeavouring to obtain payment or in the enforcement of the Tenant's covenants. If the Tenant surrenders any part of the Premises the Guarantor's liability will continue in respect of the part not surrendered. Any liability accumulated at the date of surrender will continue unaffected.

14.6. If requested by the Landlord, the guarantor agrees to provide written confirmation of an address in England or Wales for service of notices and other documents pursuant to this contract and the guarantor agrees that this will remain their address for service unless a replacement address within England or Wales is provided to the Landlord.
